

Kennedy Asks Pay Raises for U. S. Workers

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy urged Congress today to provide a billion-dollar pay raise over three years for the government's white collar workers. The aim, he said, is to put federal pay on a par with that outside so that competent people can afford to work for Uncle Sam.

The President said in a special message that he was proposing "federal pay reform, not simply a federal pay raise."

For the whole field of white collar workers, the increase would amount to 10 per cent of the present $10-billion annual payroll. But for individuals, the raises would range from 3.7 per cent to about 33 per cent for the three-year period. The first increase would come Jan. 1.

Kennedy said he is proposing a wholly new, common sense approach to the problem of putting federal salaries on a basis comparable to those in nonfederal service. This would be done for all but the highest-level officials. And for them, Kennedy said, the most vital single element in the proposal is pay adjustments for top executive and professional positions. Many of these top-rank employees, he said, are being drawn away by higher pay outside. Low government wages endanger national security, said Kennedy.

The pay reform would apply to 1,640,000 employees spread throughout the world. It would affect approximately 660,000 blue collar workers in skilled trades and crafts.

Everybody in the white collar category would get some sort of raise. For the lowest grade, GS-1, the entrance salary of $3,185 would go up to $3,225 next Jan. 1, to $3,265 a year later and to $3,305 in the third step.

The biggest group in any one class is the 168,000 workers in GS-4. Those are mainly clerical workers—file clerks, stenographers or clerk typists. The top salary in this grade would reach $5,475 at the end of the three year salary reform program compared with a present peak of $4,985.

A recent college graduate without experience would start in at Grade 5 at $4,345 under present schedules. Under the new plan he would enter federal service at $4,565 as of next year. The figure would go to $4,690 by Jan. 1, 1965. At this point the top salary for his grade would be $6,130.

Pre-College Lectures for Students

Hope High School Freshmen will be the first in this area to have a college preparation lecture by Dr. D. C. Andrews of Southern State College, under the direction of the HHS Guidance Department. Either or both parents of freshmen have a special invitation to be in the high school auditorium at 9:30 a. m. Feb. 22 for a 30 minute session.

Dr. Andrews, dean of Southern State College, earned his degree in counselor education and psychology.

This experimental 4-year program will begin with the freshman class. Each year one additional class is to be added until freshmen to seniors will be included in one year.

College entrance requirements will be discussed so that students may make long-range plans and be motivated to use their time more wisely in high school.

A follow-up survey will probably be made to study the effect of four years of class instruction.

Fewer Voters in Arkansas Check Shows

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Auditor Jimmie Jones said today that Arkansas has 14,732 fewer legally qualified voters than it did in 1960.

Jones released a detailed comparison based on poll tax receipts issued in 1961 and entitling holders to vote in this summer's party primaries and those issued in 1959 which authorized voting in the 1960 primaries.

Jones said a survey of 1961 poll tax purchases showed 575,769 legally registered voters in the state. Of these, Jones said, 68,970 are Negroes.

A similar survey two years ago showed 517,897 white voters and 72,604 Negro. In 1957, the first year that the count of Negro and white voters was made separately, there were 490,955 white and 64,023 Negro.

Jones said of the 14,732 decrease in the past two years, there were 11,098 fewer white voters and 3,634 fewer Negro. Of the 3,634 Negro voters lost, 2,441 were in Pulaski and Jefferson counties. There were 9,148 fewer white voters listed in Pulaski county in the survey. In 12 counties where the race breakdown was not available, it was estimated.

Jones said the survey revealed that in 18 counties of the state, less than 50 per cent of the voting age population paid the 1961 poll tax.

The survey, Jones said revealed that there are 14 all white counties in the state. They are Baxter, Boone, Carroll, Clay, Cleburne, Fulton, Madison, Marion, Montgomery, Newton, Polk, Searcy, Sharp and Stone.

Crittenden county ranked lowest in the survey in percentage of eligible voters with only 31 per cent. Calhoun county ranked highest, with 88 per cent.

Percentagewise, Jones said, counties with small populations ranked highest in the number of persons eligible to vote.

Twelve per cent of the residents of the state qualified to vote this summer are Negroes, Jones said. He said the survey also showed that 54 per cent of the state's population over 21 is qualified to vote. Jones said 60 per cent of the eligible white persons in the state qualified, but only 31 per cent of the eligible Negroes paid the voting fee.

One Killed, Five Hurt in Wreck

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP) — Two cars collided on U.S. Highway 63 south of here Monday, killing a 13-year-old Negro boy and injuring five other persons.

Killed were Lee Fernie Shelly of Tyrone, S. C. His mother, Mrs. Clyde Shelly, 32, was driving one car and the other was driven by Charles Norwood, 45, of Gilmore, officers said.

The drivers were injured. So was James Shelly, 10, another son of the Negro woman, and David Carey, 19, and Leon Morgan, 26, both of Gilmore, passengers in Norwood's car.

State Trooper Marvin Cook said Mrs. Shelly pulled out of a side road into the path of the Norwood car about two miles south of Marked Tree.

12 Refuse to Take Polio Shots

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Twelve children, members of the Pentecostal Church, have dropped out of school rather than take polio shots, and their attorney says he will take further action in the case.

The Arkansas Supreme Court refused to consider a Garland Chancery Court decision saying the school board could require the shots.

The attorney, Curtis R. Ridgway Jr. of Hot Springs, did not disclose his other avenues of appeal. The children's parents objected to the shots because their faith teaches divine healing and discourages the use of doctors and medicine.

The children did not attend school Monday, the deadline set by the school board for them to get the shots. The Pentecostal group has been fighting the polio shot edict for two years, saying it is a violation of the constitutional guarantee of freedom of religion.

The Supreme Court refused to consider the case because the appeal was filed a day late.

Glenn's Family Used 5 TV Sets

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP) — The family of astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. had five television sets ready today to watch his scheduled launching into orbit about the earth.

It meant a day off from school for the children—David, 16, and Lyn, 14.

It meant that Glen's wife, Annie, 40, was going to stay "glued to the TV," as one friend put it.

It meant excitement, worry and pride, too, but if the repeated postponements of her husband's adventure has brought strain and anxiety to the Glenn family, the astronaut's wife was keeping it to herself.

Mrs. Glenn has said many times that she felt fine during all the waiting for her husband's historic flight and that she had complete confidence in the space project.

Plans at the Glenns' contemporary brick home in Arlington, a suburb of Washington, were for everybody to get up early, everybody to get his own breakfast, and everybody to one of the TV sets.

Glenn's Hometown Sends Up Cheer
By ALFRED C. HALL

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP)—First there was a deep silence, then a mighty cheer in the gymnasium of Muskingum College today as astronaut John H. Glenn's rocket zoomed into space.

Between 700 and 800 New Concord residents and college students crowded into the gymnasium to watch the long-awaited space trip of their hometown hero.

In their modest home a few blocks away, the astronaut's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Glenn Sr. sat before a bank of three television sets to watch their son's space shot on all three networks.

Warns War in Viet Nam May Be Long One

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii (AP)

U.S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara warns that guerrilla warfare in South Viet Nam may continue for years.

McNamara flew back to Washington today after nine hours behind closed doors in top-level talks with 22 military and diplomatic leaders called to Hawaii to meet him. He said on departure the situation in the troubled Southeast Asia republic "seems to be stabilized insofar as Communist advances are concerned," but the end is not in sight.

His meeting, the third in the past two months for which officials have gathered here from Washington and Viet Nam, was termed earlier as a "check up on our progress in stopping communism."

At planeside he released a written statement which amounted to a general summary of the situation in South Viet Nam.

He said, in part: "With our assistance and advice Viet Nam has been able to equip and train armed forces."

"We have assigned special forces who have experience and knowledge of counter guerrilla warfare to train Vietnamese forces in this type of warfare."

"This type of warfare is a long and hard struggle because it is not full scale warfare but guerrilla warfare. Some of these wars have lasted for as long as 10 years in other parts of the world, but I am hopeful this will not be the case in South Viet Nam."

But, he added, "we must be prepared to be patient in our approach to this problem and not expect overnight or clear-cut results for some period of time."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, returning from his third conference with Pacific military commanders, said today he found that U.S. military assistance to South Viet Nam is becoming more and more effective.

He told newsmen that his meeting with Adm. Harry D. Felt, the Pacific commander, and U.S. officials from South Viet Nam, left him delighted with the progress made since his last conference a little more than a month ago.

McNamara said this trip, like the others, was to discuss the problems and progress in the program to help South Viet Nam "meet the very savage attack by infiltrators from the North."

W. Averell Harriman, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs who made the trip with McNamara, said he was very much impressed with the reports of progress in the assistance program.

Artillery Missile Shot Successful

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)

A Pershing artillery missile scooted more than 200 miles to register its 27th success in 31 test launchings, the Army reported today.

Several erratic movements were built into the flight control system to simulate violent wind conditions the missile might encounter when fired in combat. The Army reported that after each sudden shift during Monday night's flight, the guidance jerked the rocket back on course.

The two-stage mobile field weapon is scheduled to be operational late this year for initial deployment in Western Europe.

Wants Picket Injunction Dissolved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Northwest Arkansas Building Trades Council has asked the Arkansas Supreme Court to dissolve an injunction to prevent picketing at a University of Arkansas construction project.

No immediate action was taken. The union contends that the B. Sweetser Construction Co. won't recognize it as bargaining agent on the Lindell Ave. Women's Residence Hall.

Union officials said 28 of the 40 men working on the project are union members. They went on strike Feb. 5 to enforce their demands for recognition.

Chancellor Thomas F. Butt issued a temporary injunction Feb. 12 to stop the picketing while the union's case was presented to the National Labor Relations Board.

The union said Butt had no authority to issue the injunction and asked the Supreme Court to dissolve it. The court told both sides to further clarify their position in the lower court and return to the Supreme Court next Monday.

The union said a U.S. Supreme Court decision gave the NLRB jurisdiction in cases involving firms which bought more than $50,000 worth of materials outside the state the previous year.

Butt said this decision had resulted in situations where the state courts have "found themselves without jurisdiction to do anything," and yet the NLRB also declined to assume jurisdiction.

Wreck Injuries Prove Fatal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. H. Henry White, 62, of Conway, died in a Little Rock hospital Monday night of injuries suffered earlier in the day in a traffic accident in Conway.

Police said White was thrown from his car and struck his head on the pavement after his jeep was hit by a car driven by Edgar Jennings, 25, Jennings was not hurt.

More Snow Whips Across U. S. Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy snows which whipped across the Midwest into the Northeast diminished today as cold air spread across northern border regions.

More rain doused the water-soaked areas of Southern California but tapered off after Monday's heavy downpours.

The belt of snow or snow flurries extended from Indiana and the eastern upper Great Lakes to the Atlantic Coast from Maryland and New Jersey northward into New England. Skies were mostly clear in the Midwest snow belt.

The storm abated in southern New England but fairly heavy snow continued in coastal sections of Maine. The storm dumped snow ranging from 8 to 12 inches atop last Thursday's heavy covering of up to 20 inches.

In New York State, snow amounts ranged up to 20 inches on the ground in Glens Falls in the northeast, 16 in Albany and 7 in Plattsburgh. Roads and streets were generally slick or slushy.

Arctic air from Canada dropped temperatures to below zero in the eastern Dakotas and northwest Minnesota.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 8 below in Aberdeen, S.D., to 74 in Key West, Fla., and 70 in Brownsville, Tex., and West Palm Beach, Fla.

Glenn Circles Earth 3 Times, Lands Safely

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)

Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. was plucked safely from the Atlantic at 3:01 p. m.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. commented: "Boy, that was a real fireball," as his spacecraft re-entered the atmosphere and headed for a landing in the Atlantic.

Officials reported he should land within one mile of a recovery-destroyer.

The main parachute opened and began lowering him into the ocean.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. parachuted to a safe Atlantic landing today within six miles of the recovery destroyer, USS Noa.

Observers on the Noa watched his space ship float downward at 2:43 p. m. The destroyer sped to pick him up.

The landing was four hours, 56 minutes after blastoff.

The Noa headed for the capsule, which appeared from the distance to be in excellent condition.

There was no direct communication between the Cape and the capsule, but the destroyer was heard to say: "Roger, Friendship 7, understand your condition, is excellent."

The destroyer reported at 2:53 p. m. that it expected to pick up Glenn momentarily.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)

Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. rocketed into orbit today in his spacecraft "Friendship 7" at 9:47 a. m. Eastern Standard Time, and scientists planned to bring him down after he circled the earth three times in four hours, 50 minutes.

As Glenn soared toward his rendezvous with the stars, he reported by radio to Mercury control center at Cape Canaveral that "I feel fine and the view is tremendous."

He said he could see the Atlas booster rocket falling away behind him and that he had a clear view of much of the earth stretching back to the Cape from his vantage point about 100 miles in space.

"It's a beautiful sight," Glenn exclaimed. The reports came from the control center here, where officials monitored the historic flight of the first American to be fired into orbit.

Glenn's space capsule was blasted skyward by a powerful Atlas booster.

As the rocket was ignited, great billows of smoke poured out of the bottom of the tall Atlas shot through with flashes of brilliant light.

Jettison from the bottom was a long tongue of bright orange flame, looking much like a Fourth of July fireworks flare.

Two small rocket engines, used for minor course corrections, blazed brightly on either side of the long, pencil-like silver rocket.

In seconds, a great roar barreled across the Cape and struck the ears of reporters and other observers nearly two miles away.

Less than two minutes after blastoff, which was 9:47 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, systems in the spacecraft were "go." He confirmed booster engine cutoff about two minutes after liftoff and was reading his instruments, reporting back on cabin pressure and the gradual buildup of the pressures of gravity that were forcing him back into his contour seat.

Shortly before three minutes he reported the escape tower separation. Continued on Page Two

Faubus in No Hurry About ESD Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval F. Faubus appeared in no hurry today to settle the cases of two Employment Security Division employees the federal civil Service Commission has ordered the state to fire.

Faubus said he hasn't discussed the matter in detail with PSD Administrator J. L. Bland since Bland returned from Washington, where he talked over the cases with federal officials.

Bland was in the governor's office today but he didn't see Faubus, who left to attend a funeral at Huntsville.

The deadline for firing the two men — Luke Arnett and Charles Wood — passed last week. They were found guilty of violating the Hatch Act, which prohibits political activity by federal employees.

ESD employees are paid from federal funds and thus come under the act.

The state faces loss of twice the annual salaries of the two men — about $25,000 — if it fails to fire them.

In other news conference developments today, Faubus endorsed the selection of Morrilton as the site for a new state trade school and said the Weights and Standards Division still is investigating complaints about discrimination in enforcement of truck weight laws.

Faubus said he didn't want to get drawn into a controversy between Morrilton and Fort Smith over the school, which the state Board of Education decided Sunday to place in Morrilton.

"Fort Smith would make an excellent location for the school," Faubus said. "But I think the reasoning given by the board for selecting Morrilton was good. Fort Smith remains eligible for a school at a later date. I'm sure we are going to need at least four more such schools."

Faubus said he has ordered the Weights and Standards Division to tighten enforcement of weight laws while the investigation is proceeding.

A truckers group charged last week that such enforcement was lax, particularly in Pulaski County.

Faubus was asked about a report received by the Legislative Audit Committee citing that a former Civil Defense employee, is charged in connection with a shortage, now was working for another state agency, the University of Arkansas.

"The state did not reemploy this man in any agency under my control," Faubus said. "If the university hired him without checking, I'm surprised."

Neither Faubus nor the audit committee has yet checked out the report about the man's reemployment.

Wildlife Group to Meet in Monroe

MONROE, La. (AP)—Wildlife officials from six southern states have been invited to a meeting here next Friday to discuss the overall waterfowl situation in the Mississippi Flyway.

Confirmations have been received from Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee. Also invited were Alabama and Kentucky.

The open conference will be sponsored by the Ouachita Parish Wildlife unit.

L. D. Young, director of the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission, and Nelson Cox, director of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission agreed that the six states must work together in their approach to improving the waterfowl season for next year.

They said Louisiana this season has only 19 1/2 days of hunting in November although the Interior Department survey showed the state had 70 per cent of the ducks. However, on an overall basis the Mississippi Flyway lost 14 per cent and had a drastic reduction in mallards.

On Saturday representatives will work on plans for the coming session of the Mississippi Flyway Council.

THE INSTITUTIONS OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

COMMON INTERESTS—The nations of Western Europe are becoming more and more interlocked, both politically and economically. Pattern for this trend is being set by the Common Market, formed in 1957 and composed of France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Italy, Netherlands and West Germany. Chart above shows the machinery of Common Market co-operation. The three commissions—Coal and Steel High Authority (ESCS), Economic Community Commission (ECC) and European Atomic Energy Commission (Euratom)—propose agreements relating to all aspects of trade, manufacturing, agriculture, etc. The Councils of Ministers pass on these. If approved, they become binding on all members. The Parliament is mostly investigative; it also passes on applications for membership in the Common Market. The Court of Justice resolves disputes between individuals, companies or governments.

New Trial Is Requested

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Federal district Judge Gordon E. Young took under advisement today the petition of Clarence Stewart Jr. for a new trial.

Stewart, a Negro, was convicted in 1958 of the fatal stabbing of William Caldwell, a North Little Rock merchant.

He was given a stay of execution last week by Gov. Orval F. Faubus to allow him to petition for a new trial on the basis of findings of the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals in the case of Luther Bailey, convicted of rape.

The appellate court found discrimination in the selection of juries in Pulaski County at the time of the trial of both Bailey and Stewart.

This situation was later corrected by the state legislature.

Young allowed 17 days for filing of briefs today after hearing defense and prosecution attorneys filed petitions and transcripts of Stewart's trial.

In a second trial, Bailey was again convicted and given the death sentence.

Conductor Dies at Age of 85

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Conductor Bruno Walter, a perfectionist with a gentle temperament, is dead of a heart attack at the age of 85.

The German-born Walter, who wielded his baton for 68 years, died suddenly Saturday in his Beverly Hills home.

Walter, a naturalized U.S. citizen, came to this country in 1939 when Adolf Hitler stepped up his persecution of German Jews. He was virtually a world citizen, conducting famous symphony orchestras throughout Europe.

Walter's career began at 4 when a musician friend told Bruno's shopkeeper father that the youth had true pitch he could exactly duplicate the finest tonal differences of a pitchpipe.

He made his debut as a concert pianist at 9 and at 17 he conducted for the first time.

tion and the space ship was reported climbing well on its trajectory.

Below, a high-altitude observation plane traced a lazy "S" contour to the south of the climbing missile.

As the rocket soared on toward orbit, Glenn reported "I feel fine" and that his view was tremendous.

The massive rocket, generating 360,000 pounds thrust, performed perfectly and with pinpoint precision, boosted the spacecraft to the proper speed and altitude for the mission.

Officials reported the capsule was in an orbit ranging from a high point of 160 miles to a low of 100 miles and the speed was 17,545 miles an hour. Estimated time of each circuit of the globe was 89 minutes.

As the rocket rose skyward, Glenn, acting like a true test pilot, reported on the condition of his instruments and of himself. He said forces of eight times the pull of gravity worked on him during the peak acceleration.

After reporting the fallaway of the booster, he radioed that his spacecraft had successfully turned around 180 degrees as planned so that he was riding upright and backwards, with the craft's heat shield leading the way.

Almost immediately, the Mercury tracking station at Bermuda picked up signals from the swiftly moving vehicle and reported Glenn's voice coming in clearly.

At this point, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration confirmed that orbit had been attained.

It was planned to bring Glenn down to a landing 800 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral at approximately 2:37 p.m.

The launching came after several frustrating postponements dating back to Dec. 20. Several technical delays today slipped the scheduled 7:30 a.m. launching for more than two hours and almost forced reduction of the flight to two orbits.

Officials had said that if the liftoff occurred too much past 9:30 a.m. they might cut the number of orbits.

The gravity forces which gripped Glenn on liftoff, making his lean, trim body feel eight times heavier than its normal 165 pounds, vanished suddenly when the capsule entered orbit.

The pressure was gone and Glenn became weightless — the buoyant feeling that results when a delicate balance is achieved between the outward pull of centrifugal force and the downward pull of the earth's gravity.

Glenn was to be in this mysterious weightless condition for most of the remainder of his flight, until Friendship 7 re-entered the atmosphere en route back to earth. A major goal of today's flight was to determine man's capabilities and limitations in that weightless environment.

It is a sensation future space travelers must learn to cope with for days and weeks at a time.

Putting Glenn into orbit does not necessarily make the mission a success, however.

Still ahead lay a critical period of re-entry at completion of the three orbits. A trio of reverse rockets at the base of the capsule were to be fired by a signal from an automatic clock aboard the craft as it approached the West Coast of the United States near the end of the third circuit.

If all fire properly, speed will be reduced enough to take the capsule out of orbit and enable it to descend gradually to a landing near Grand Turk Island in the Bahamas.

Because Friendship 7 was traveling five miles a second, it would miss the intended impact zone by five miles every second of error in the clock. Or, if only one or two of the rockets fired, he would miss the area by hundreds of miles and a recovery would be still more difficult.

After firing of the retros, Glenn then had to rely on the complex spacecraft control parachute and landing systems and the far-flung recovery forces for his salvation.

Or, as in the case of the orbital flight of Enos, the chimpanzee, last November, trouble could develop in the capsule and the flight be terminated early.

Thailand, U. S. Are in Accord

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Thailand and the United States are "in accord" on efforts to settle the Laos crisis peacefully, U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said today.

Kennedy chere on a whirlwind 22 1/2 hour visit during his world tour, spent more than an hour in private conversation with Thai Prime Minister Marshal Sarit Thanarat, with Laos as one of their major topics.

In brief comments to newsmen after the meeting in Sarit's office, Kennedy said, "We are hoping Thailand and the United States—that the matter can be resolved in Laos in a satisfactory manner. We are both in accord on efforts being made" (to reach a settlement).

He declined, however, to be pinned down on whether his reference to efforts meant a U.S.-supported move to form a coalition government for Laos under neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma.

Thailand is opposed to such a government, fearful that the pro-Communist Pathet Lao led by Souvanna's half brother, Prince Souphanouvong, would eventually gain control of the neighboring Southeast Asia kingdom bringing a threat to Thai security.

U.S. aid to Thailand—which has totaled $220 million plus $300 million more in military assistance over the past 10 years—was reviewed by Kennedy in his talks with government officials.

Leads in Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas led a four-state southwestern region in percentage of non-agricultural job placements in the first seven months of the 1962 fiscal year, the Arkansas Employment Security Division said. A total of 60,683 persons were placed on non-farm jobs, an increase of 39.6 per cent over the same period last year. It was more than the Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas figures.

DOUBLE-SAFETY BRAKE SYSTEM

You stop when others can't! Only Rambler and Cadillac, of all American cars for 1962, have the major safety advance of Double-Safety Brake System. Tandem master cylinders with 2 separate hydraulic systems. If front brakes fail, rear brakes still work, and vice versa. Priceless protection, and standard equipment at no extra cost, all models. So are self-adjusting brakes. So are a whole host of new advancements. And still Rambler prices stay low. Suggestion: see your Rambler dealer this week.

Emergency Public Works Bill Offered

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent to Congress legislation to give him power to trigger up to $2 billion of public works projects in the early stage of any business slump.

In an accompanying letter Kennedy said the standby authority would be "an invaluable anti-recession tool."

It would permit a speedup of authorized federal projects and provide grant and loan funds for the states to activate their own high-priority improvements, Kennedy said, without the necessity of waiting for congressional action which "may be too late."

The standby plan, part of the three-point program urged by Kennedy in his economic message Jan. 22, has been hailed by most Democrats but attacked by Republicans as a potential invasion of congressional authority.

The other requested measures were standby powers to reduce income taxes subject to veto by Congress and permanently enlarged unemployment benefits. The three Kennedy said, would permit the government to act "more promptly, more flexibly and more forcefully to stabilize the economy."

The administration bill set out a formula which would permit the President to start the works programs. He could move when unemployment had risen in three out of four, or four out of six consecutive months by not less than one percentage point, and after the President determined that the action was needed to attain the goals of the employment act of 1946 — maximum employment, production and purchasing power.

Kennedy Has Arrived in Austria

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Edward M. Kennedy, brother of the U.S. President, arrived here today from a two-day visit to Communist Poland and said he was "tremendously impressed by the friendship of the Polish people toward the American people."

"The Poles are extremely friendly and hospitable, with a great reservoir of good will toward the United States, my brother and me as an individual," Kennedy told reporters.

Kennedy, whose visit to Poland was part of a European tour, said he had talks with Deputy Foreign Minister Jozef Winiewicz in Warsaw and also met a number of leading officials and newsmen. He said his talks with Winiewicz concentrated on "mutual problems of foreign policy of Poland and the United States."

Kennedy said he expects to have talks in Paris with common market officials before proceeding to West Berlin Friday, where he is scheduled to meet his touring brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Asks Why Secrecy Wraps Were Lifted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said today his Senate Investigations Subcommittee is inquiring into why the Pentagon took secrecy wraps off blueprints for the "brain" of the guided missile.

The staff inquiry developed when the subcommittee learned that anyone could buy at the patent office for 25 cents the design for the guidance system of a missile claimed to be similar, possibly identical, to that of the Sidewinder.

Sidewinder is a missile already in the U.S. arsenal. It is capable of tracking down and destroying a plane in flight.

McClellan declined to give details of the inquiry.

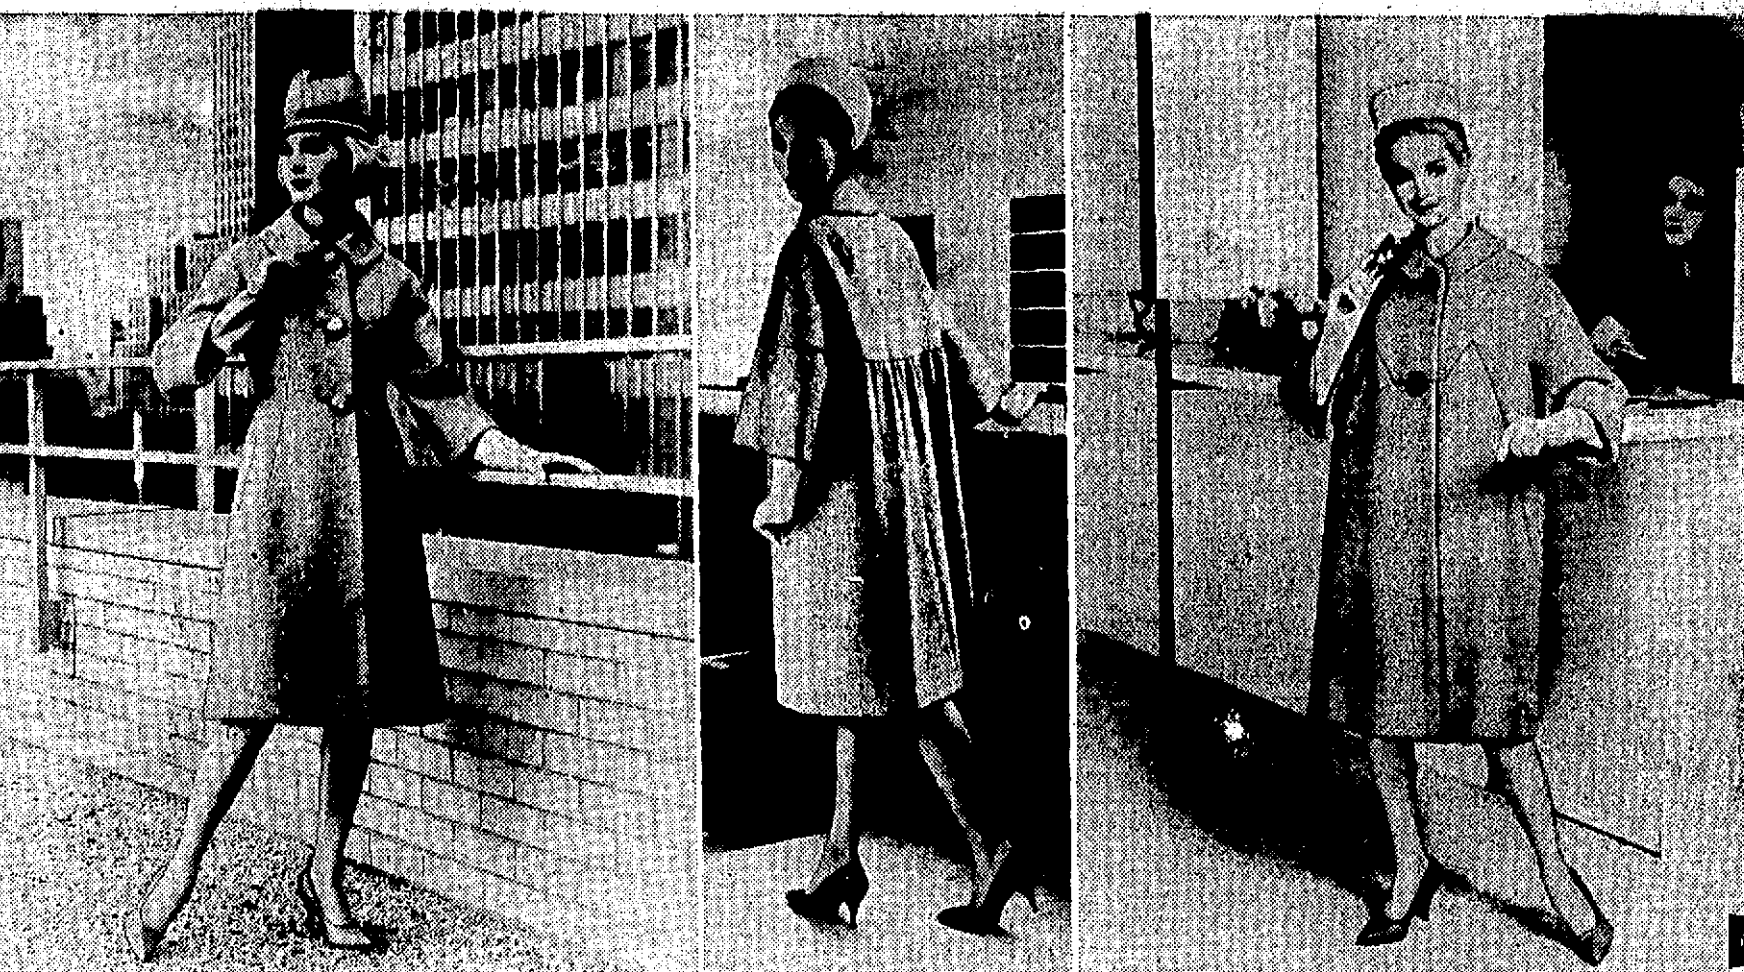

other Algerian rebel officials. The Algerians had left their Tunis headquarters Feb. 10 to meet the French at a secret location.

Throughout the week optimism reigned both in Paris and Tunis over progress of the talks. But over the weekend there was a note of pessimism with reports from Tunis that difficulties had cropped up.

The French and the Algerians have been coming closer together on a settlement of their 7½-year war of rebellion for some time. On Feb. 5, De Gaulle, scolding right-wing plotters against his rule, expressed hopes before a national television audience that peace with the Algerians would come soon.

In Algeria, however, rightist Europeans vow to keep Algeria French and seek to block its independence through the terrorist Secret Army Organization.

The secret army has pledged itself to a long guerrilla campaign against De Gaulle and against any provisional executive body that would assume control of the French colony.

A clear idea of major coat silhouettes for spring may be had from a study of these designs. The princess (left) represents the fitted coat with normal shoulder line. Coat with cardigan look (right) has seamed yoke and moderate waistline. The fit is achieved with careful seaming; fabric is mohair wool fullness. This is done in mohair wool hopsack. These are Britany designs.

DOROTHY DIX

Her Son-In-Law an Off-Again-On-Again Finnegan

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Every two years or so my son-in-law has us all in an uproar over—the big move.

Life will be flowing along, serene and beautiful as a June day when suddenly he'll stalk in from the office, fling his coat and hat on the sofa instead of hanging it up like he usually does, and announce loudly to everybody present, "I've quit this so-and-so job. We're moving away to God's country, where they treat a man like a man, not a sap."

I've been there when he does this. Last time was three weeks ago. He and my daughter and their three children (one's his stepson) live just down the block.

I'd taken over a couple of custard pies fresh baked that day. It was around five-thirty in the afternoon. My daughter and I were sitting in the living room looking at a pink coat she was making for her baby girl.

On this particular occasion, "God's country" was the Southwest. (Mind you, we all love my son-in-law. He's a good husband, father and talker.) "I'm taking off tomorrow to look the situation over," he patted his vest pocket, "bought a one-way plane ticket." Then, turning to my daughter, "It won't be easy to leave your Mom and Pop, but once we're settled they can follow. Meanwhile, get things going at this end. Sell the house, clear out all you can. We'll start fresh there. A new life! I'll wire you when to leave."

The boys had turned off the TV and were listening pop-eyed. Even Baby was excited. He was still booming the Southwest as the land of milk and honey and golden opportunity when I left.

For the past two weeks my daughter has either sold or given to the thrift shop, furniture, dishes (she's down to one cup), and winter clothing. "Because you won't need that in the Southwest," her husband wrote, "It's Paradise here."

We took in her and the children

law.—Concerned

Dear Concerned: Your son-in-law probably makes these periodic breaks because he's unhappy with his job. Call a family pov-wow. Since you are all evidently in harmony, this should be easy. Find out what he really wants to do in life and, if he lacks training in the profession of his choice, underwrite his education. If this isn't practical, he could go to vocational night school.

He seems to be a salesman since he gets himself and everybody else steamed up over these "big moves" and, most incredible of all, talks his old boss into rehiring him after each flop. Suggest that he talk to the boss about a transfer to the selling end of the company. Give him something he likes to do and he'll stay put. But warn your daughter, if he doesn't, to stay put herself until the next job materializes.

Dear Helen: I'm a 14-year-old girl who finds herself caught between mother and father in a family row over money. What with pension benefits and salary, my father has an income of $552 a month yet is always head over heels in debt. My mother, who also earns money, suggested they divide the bills, she taking the largest and most pressing. This she did but my father still hasn't paid the others and so they argue on and on, far into the night, until our home is a hell on earth. Both appeal to me, which makes it even worse — Need Help Fast, yeegua5Prah z ES TH AR AA

Dear Need Help: This is a problem for your father and mother to settle. Refuse to be dragged into their quarrels because the role of peacemaker is impossible when husband and wife are the principals. You're bound to be hurt, no matter whose side you take. But, if your father is at all open to reason, you might write to American Bankers Association,

12 East 26th Street, New York 16, N. Y. and ask for their pamphlet, "Personal Money Management."

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Financial Problems."

Fulbright Favorable to UN Bonds

WASHINGTON (AP) - Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee indicated willingness today to support U. S. purchase of half the $200-million U. N. bond issue if other countries buy the other half.

Fulbright, an Arkansas Democrat, said he would prefer "reasonable assurances" that other countries would subscribe to the second $100 million rather than make it mandatory for them to do so before the United States participates.

Kennedy's controversial request for authority to buy $100 million in U. N. bonds, repayable annually at 2 per cent interest over 25 years, won Fulbright's conditional acceptance in an interview in advance of the resumption of committee hearings on the proposal.

The money is needed to meet U. N. expenses in the Congo and the Middle East. The failure of Russia and some other nations to meet their special assessments for peacekeeping operations has created a financial crisis for the United Nations.

Fulbright said it was too early for him to make a flat statement until he has reviewed all the testimony.

"I think the committee will want reasonable assurances that other countries will subscribe to their share," he added. "It would be better if they subscribe voluntarily. If they can be persuaded to buy the other bonds, I'd prefer that course rather than try to lay down conditions for participation."

He said an amendment by Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, to guarantee repayment of bonds the United States purchases "sounds reasonable." This amendment would authorize the President to deduct from its regular U. N. assessments each year the amount the United States would be entitled to collect on its bond purchases.

Fulbright said he had doubts about a proposal by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., which would authorize U. S. purchase of $20 million of the bond issue with a requirement that other countries match, dollar-for-dollar further U. S. purchases up to $100 million.

Opinion on Right of Privacy

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Atty. Gen. Frank Holt has distributed copies to members of the Arkansas Prosecuting Attorneys Association of a U. S. Supreme Court ruling on the right of privacy.

Last June 19 the Supreme Court held that any evidence gathered through illegal seizures and searches is not admissible in state courts.

Prior to this decision state courts and law enforcement bodies were allowed to use such illegally obtained evidence to convict accused persons. This was despite the Fourth Amendment prohibiting unreasonable searches and seizures.

Holt told the AAPA that Arkansas has similar laws in its constitution but these have sometimes been ignored.

The Arkansas Supreme Court said in 1959 it was ready to put an end to such procedures.

George Hartie Jr., Conway, was elected president succeeding Bill Previtt, El Dorado. Lawson E. Glover, Malvern, was chosen vice president and John Jernigan, Little Rock, secretary-treasurer.

Lowly Porkers Want Revenge Against Bears

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas' Razorbacks, mired in the depths of the Southwest Conference standings, can salvage a little self respect tonight with a revenge victory over Baylor's Bears in a game here.

Baylor upset the Hogs 74-60 three games ago and Arkansas hasn't recovered since. The Hogs beat TCU 90-80, but lost to Rice 63-55 and to Texas Tech 70-64.

The Baylor game can be considered a breather for Arkansas, since the last three games on the schedule are with first-division teams, Texas A&M (Feb. 23) and SMU (March 2) are tied for the lead and Texas (Feb. 27) is fourth.

Arkansas has a 4-6 conference record and still sports a respectable 12-7 season chart, mostly due to a nine-game winning streak early in the campaign.

Hog Coach Glen Rose will stick with his standard starting lineup, Tommy Boyer, Larry Wofford, Jim Wilson, Jerry Carlton and Jerry Rogers.

Baylor's lineup will consist of Wayne Bailey, Harold Henson, Herbert Barrill, Roy Wolfe and Don Brownlee. Ronnie Phelps could get the starting assignment instead of Brownlee, a guard.

Baylor is 1-6 in league play and 4-16 for the year.

Ohio State Is Sure to Make NCAA Meet

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ever since last March, the University of Cincinnati has been pointing to the current basketball season with just one thought in mind—to get another shot at Ohio State in the NCAA postseason tournament.

The Bearcats have had their ups and downs and just a month ago, appeared ready to roll over and play dead when they lost to archrival Bradley in the Missouri Valley Conference.

But they're back in the running today and, in fact, unless the fates go against them they should make the NCAA tournament again.

Monday night, they turned the tables on Bradley, 72-57, on their home court and pulled into a tie with the Braves for the conference lead, each with 9-2 records. Each has one more league game.

Should Cincinnati win the Missouri Valley title and the NCAA berth, Bradley probably would wind up in the National Invitation Tournament in New York.

The NCAA needs 10 at-large teams to round out its list of conference champions. The MIT field consists of 12 teams. Each took four in the opening blasts Monday.

Here is how they line up:

NCAA—Oregon State (17-3), Creighton (16-4), Detroit (14-7) and Villanova (16-6).

NIT—Providence (18-5), Duquesne (16-5), Loyola of Chicago (16-2) and Houston (18-5).

Ron Bonham and George Wilson, a couple of sophomore flashes, were the main architects of the Cincinnati triumph. Bonham scored 20 points, 16 in the first half, and Wilson chipped in with 16, along with 14 rebounds.

Kentucky had its troubles, but managed to hang on for an 87-80 victory over Vanderbilt in a Southeastern Conference game—mainly through the efforts of Cotton Nash, who scored 38 points.

Two other members of the Top Ten also won. Mississippi State, No. 5, also had its problems before subduing Georgia, 83-74, to stay in the SEC lead, while Duke, No. 8, rolled to an easy 97-71 Atlantic Coast Conference decision over Virginia.

Both Creighton and Loyola of Chicago celebrated their NCAA and NIT bids with victories. Creighton ran its winning streak to seven by whipping Centenary of Louisiana, 77-70, and Loyola trampled St. Norbert, 105-52.

Western Kentucky won the Ohio Valley Conference crown by defeating Morehead, 77-51 to join Arizona State University (Border) and Bowling Green (Mid-America) as an automatic qualifier for the NCAA tournament.

In the Big Ten, Iowa outlasted Michigan State, 59-51; Wisconsin remained in second place behind undefeated Ohio State by edging Illinois, 103-101, and Indiana cut down Michigan, 86-77, with Jim Rayl hitting nine straight free throws for a three-game string of 32—a league record. Purdue polished off Notre Dame, 115-90, in a nonconference game and in the process set a school scoring record.

In the Big Eight, Missouri pulled out of the cellar by turning back Oklahoma State, 69-64. Oklahoma eked out a 67-66 victory over Kansas and dropped the Jayhawks into the basement.

Furman clinched third place seeding in the Southern Conference tournament, trouncing Richmond, 79-54. North Carolina beat Maryland, 70-67, in the only Atlantic Coast Conference game of the night.

26 points, retrieved the lead with a field goal.

Then Rook hit his 15 footer.

Arkansas State is 14-5 for the season.

Rook Leads State Over Austin Peay

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Freshman Jerry Rook played like a seasoned senior in leading Arkansas State to a 74-73 basketball victory over Austin Peay Monday night.

Rook scored 32 points, including the winning basket on a jump shot with 15 seconds left. Austin led through most of the game and blew an eight point advantage in the fading moments.

Gaylon Ward, who scored 13 points, gave State a 72-71 lead with 30 seconds left, but Jim Brasher, who paced Austin

Standings the Same in Cage Poll

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the tenth straight week, Ohio State's brilliant Buckeyes are the unanimous choice today as major college basketball's No. 1 team.

The Bucks, who pushed their record to 20-0 with two more victories last week, drew all 43 first-place votes again in the 11th weekly balloting by the members of 'The Associated Press' special nationwide panel of sportswriters and sportscasters.

Ohio State wound up with a 60-point edge over Cincinnati, which moved up to second place after the runner-up of the last few weeks, Kentucky, was beaten by Mississippi State. Kentucky fell to third, just ahead of Kansas State, which held its position of last week.

Mississippi State moved up to fifth, Bradley dropped a notch to sixth, Bowling Green jumped from tenth to seventh, Duke slipped one position to eighth, Colorado—on a 10-game winning streak after losing five of its first nine games—entered the Top Ten in ninth place, and Oregon State fell from sixth to tenth. Duquesne, beaten by Westminster (Pa.) and Dayton, dropped out of the select group.

The Top Ten based on games through Feb. 17, with first-place votes in parenthesis, balloting on 10-9-8-7-6 etc basis:

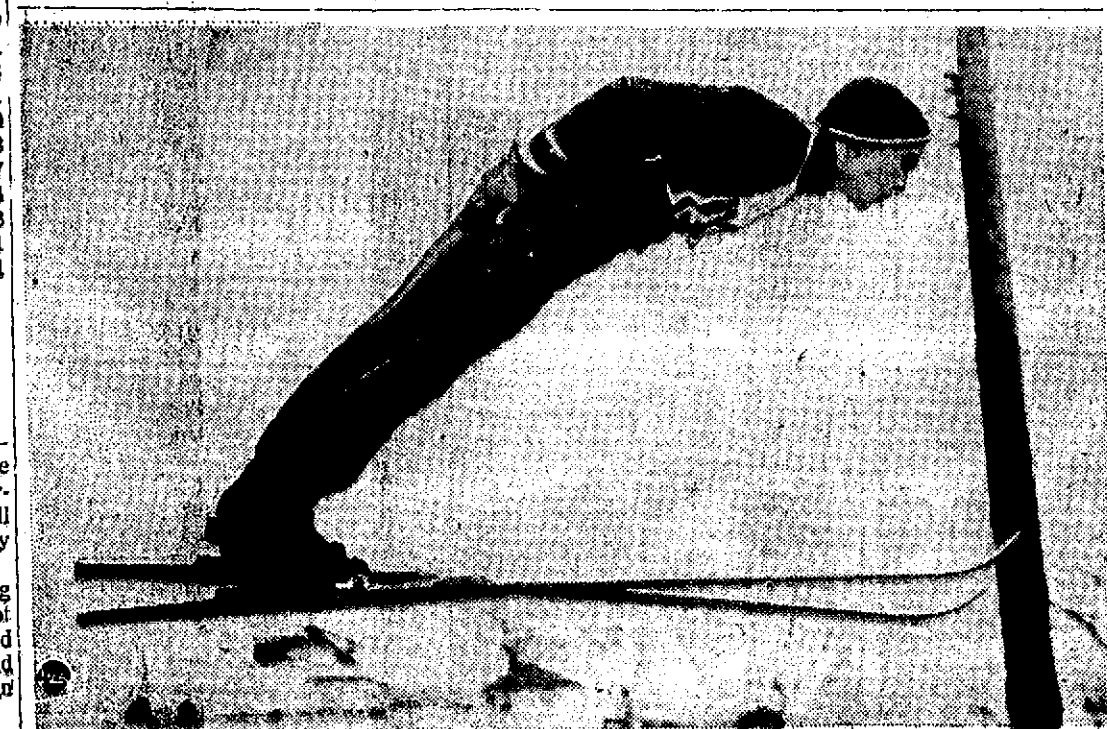

1. Ohio State (43)	430
2. Cincinnati	370
3. Kentucky	309
4. Kansas State	269
5. Mississippi State	239
6. Bradley	227
7. Bowling Green	135
8. Duke	116
9. Colorado	64
10. Oregon State	42

Passengers Up for the Airways

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The number of passengers boarding commercial airlines in Little Rock during 1961 increased 3.1 per cent to 109,842 compared to 97,000 in 1960 the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce reported today.

The chamber's Aviation Committee noted that 94,679 passengers deplaned last year compared to 86,938 the previous year.

Men of the Lotuka tribe, southern Sudan, seldom use tobacco but the tribeswomen smoke pipes.

POLE POSITION—It looks as though airborne Jim House could be in for trouble, but the camera is only playing a trick as the Iron Mountain, Mich., star swishes by in the St. Paul Winter Ski Jumping Championships. Next to a jet, this is one of the swiftest ways to go.

Derby Hopeful in Debut at Oaklawn Park

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Several Arkansas Derby hopefuls will make their Oaklawn Park debut today, but they'll be asked to test their mettle against older horses.

They are among nine 3 and 4-year-olds entered in the $2,800 Double Jay purse, which gets top billing on the eight-race card.

One of those whose performance in the six-furlong allowance dash will be watched with considerable interest is Harold Florsheim's promising but untried Bold Prince. He will be ridden by veteran jockey Larney Hunsman and although the colt will be making his first start, trainer Frank Kurinec expects him to give a good account of himself.

The favorite's role may go to Forrest H. Lindsay's Countess Espy, topweighted at 118 pounds. Other strong contenders are Herschel Weil's Nadia and Gomer Evans' Mr. Oklahoma. Both Countess Espy and Nadia were winners in Kentucky last month.

Rounding out the field are E. J. Harmon's Longstoryshort, who won one of his three races last year; Claude Burland Jr.'s Juan Tace, Dade and White's Miss Coffeyville, Osage Stable's Tinted Joe and George R. White's Trust Man.

Supporting feature of the card will be the $2,500 Jan Garber purse, named in honor of the band leader.

E. J. Grosfield's Little Atlas put on the speed in the stretch Monday and beat Marion Van Berg's Spring Broker by a nose in the $3,500 Arkansas Hairdresser's purse.

Mrs. Emil Denmark's Santiago also made a strong stretch bid and finished third. Little Atlas ran the six furlongs in 1:11.3 for his first victory of the year. He paid $14.80, $6.40 and $3.60.

A crowd of 6,748 bet $346,503 on Monday's eight-race card.

Rogers Leads Win Over S. State

Birdie Rogers scored 35 points in leading Arkansas College to a 72-70 Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball victory over Southern State in Magnolia Monday night.

State put on a vigorous late rally, but it fell two points short. Southern's Pete Lasater hit a long jump shot with seven seconds left to shave the winning margin from four points.

Tonight, league-leading State Teachers can take a major step toward the AIC title by beating Henderson in Arkadelphia. Henderson, Ouachita and Arkansas Tech still have mathematical chances to catch the Bears.

Runyan Wins the LaJolla Tourney

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Old timers will remember Paul Runyan as one of the greatest golfers, but at the age of 53 he has just earned the biggest prize of his life, $2,000 first money as the PGA Senior's champion.

It was a repeat performance for Runyan, a former PGA champion and twice top money winner on the pro tour. But those were the days before World War II when prize money was small.

The La Jolla, Calif., veteran finished with a 278 Monday, 10 under par for 72 holes and tied the record he set in this tournament for pros 50 and over last year.

The PGA National Course played to a tough par 72 in the final round and not many of the veteran pros cracked it. Runyan closed with 33-70 for a tournament card of 71-69-68-70-278.

And it was far better than the 75 by Jimmy Demaret of Houston and by Joe Brown of West Des Moines, Iowa, who were leading after 54 holes.

Brown, E.J. (Dutch) Harrison of San Francisco and Ernie Ball of Oak Park, Ill., who finished with 71, tied for second at 281.
